1. Welcome

Welcome to Nexora Global Solutions Pvt. Ltd.. This Employee Handbook is designed to introduce you to our culture, values, and the key policies that guide how we work together. It serves as a quick reference and should be read alongside the detailed HR Policies, Leave Policy, Travel Policy, Insurance Policy, and Training Policy documents.

2. About the Company

Nexora Global Solutions Pvt. Ltd. is a professional services organization providing consulting, technology, and operations solutions to clients across multiple industries. We are committed to building an inclusive, high-performance culture that rewards initiative, collaboration, and integrity.

2.1 Our Values

- Integrity — We do the right thing, even when no one is watching.
- Client Focus — We measure our success by the value we create for those we serve.
- Collaboration — We achieve more by working across boundaries and sharing knowledge freely.
- Excellence — We hold ourselves to a high standard and continuously improve.
- Respect — We value diverse perspectives and treat everyone with dignity.

3. Employment Basics

3.1 Employment Categories

Category	Description
Permanent	Full-time employees on the Company payroll, post or during probation
Fixed-term Contract	Employees engaged for a defined project or period
Intern	Students or graduates on a short-term learning engagement

3.2 Working Hours

Standard working hours are 9:30 AM to 6:30 PM, Monday through Friday, with a one-hour unpaid lunch break. Certain teams may follow flexible or shift-based schedules as agreed with their manager. Full details are available in the HR Policies document.

3.3 Identity Cards and Access

All employees are issued a Company identity card at onboarding, which must be worn/carried at all times on Company premises and presented on request. Loss of the ID card must be reported to Admin/HR immediately.

4. Compensation and Benefits Overview

- Monthly salary credited by the last working day of each month
- Group Medical, Personal Accident, and Term Life Insurance (see Insurance Policy)
- Annual leave entitlements across Casual, Sick, and Earned Leave categories (see Leave Policy)
- Learning and development sponsorship for job-relevant training and certifications (see Training Policy)
- Domestic and international travel support for business purposes (see Travel Policy)

5. Code of Conduct and Workplace Behavior

5.1 Professional Conduct

Employees are expected to maintain professionalism, honesty, and respect in all interactions, both within the Company and with external stakeholders. Conflicts of interest must be disclosed promptly to HR.

5.2 Anti-Harassment and Equal Opportunity

The Company is committed to providing a workplace free from harassment, discrimination, and retaliation of any kind, based on gender, race, religion, disability, age, or any other protected characteristic. Any employee experiencing or witnessing such conduct is encouraged to report it through the Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) Committee or directly to HR; all complaints are handled confidentially.

5.3 Dress Code

Employees are expected to dress in business casual attire on regular working days, and business formal attire for client meetings or as directed by their manager. Specific guidance may vary by role and location.

5.4 Workplace Safety

The Company maintains a safe working environment in compliance with applicable occupational health and safety regulations. Any workplace hazard, accident, or safety concern should be reported immediately to Admin/Facilities and HR.

6. Information Security and IT Usage

- Company IT assets, email, and systems are provided for legitimate business use and remain Company property at all times.

- Employees must not share login credentials, install unauthorized software, or access unauthorized data.
- Confidential Company and client information must be protected at all times, including after separation from the Company.
- Social media posts referencing the Company, its clients, or colleagues must comply with the Social Media Guidelines and must not disclose confidential information.

7. Leave and Time Off

Employees are entitled to Casual, Sick, Earned, Maternity, Paternity, and other categories of leave as detailed in the Leave Policy. All leave must be applied for through the HRMS in advance, except in genuine emergencies.

8. Travel and Expenses

Employees traveling for business purposes should refer to the Travel Policy for booking procedures, entitlements by grade, per diem rates, and the expense reimbursement process.

9. Learning and Career Development

The Company invests in employee growth through structured induction, functional training, leadership development, and sponsorship for relevant external certifications, as outlined in the Training Policy. Employees are encouraged to discuss career aspirations with their manager as part of the annual performance review.

10. Grievance and Escalation

Employees with a concern regarding their role, manager, or working conditions should first raise it with their Reporting Manager. If unresolved, the matter can be escalated to the HR Business Partner and, if necessary, the Grievance Redressal Committee, which will respond within 15 working days.

11. Separation from the Company

Employees wishing to resign must submit written notice through the HRMS, in line with the notice period applicable to their grade (see HR Policies, Section 10). Full and final settlement, including any leave encashment and pending reimbursements, is processed within 45 days of the last working day, subject to completion of exit clearance and knowledge transfer.

12. Acknowledgment

By continuing employment with the Company, employees acknowledge that they have read, understood, and agree to comply with this Employee Handbook and the accompanying HR policies. The Company reserves the right to amend this handbook at its discretion, and updated versions will be communicated to all employees.
