

Nexora Global Solutions Pvt. Ltd.

HR Policies

Core policies governing employment at Nexora Global Solutions

Effective Date: January 1, 2026

Document Owner: Human Resources Department

Classification: Internal Use — Sample / Template Document

1. Purpose and Applicability

This document sets out the core Human Resources policies of Nexora Global Solutions Pvt. Ltd. governing recruitment, employment terms, performance management, conduct, and separation. It applies to all employees across all locations and functions, and should be read together with the Leave Policy, Travel Policy, Insurance Policy, and Training Policy issued separately.

2. Recruitment and Onboarding

- All hiring is conducted on the basis of merit, qualifications, and business need, in compliance with equal opportunity principles.
- Offers of employment are subject to verification of educational credentials, employment history, and background checks.
- New employees undergo a structured onboarding program including documentation, induction training, and role orientation within the first 2 weeks of joining.

3. Probation and Confirmation

New employees, other than those hired at senior leadership levels, are typically placed on probation for a period of 6 months from the date of joining. Confirmation is subject to satisfactory performance, conduct, and completion of mandatory documentation. The probation period may be extended by up to 3 months at the discretion of the Reporting Manager and HR where performance requires further assessment.

4. Working Hours and Attendance

Category	Standard Hours
Standard office hours	9:30 AM - 6:30 PM, Monday to Friday
Lunch break	1 hour (unpaid)
Weekly off	Saturday and Sunday
Flexible / hybrid work	As per team-specific arrangement, approved by manager

Employees are expected to record attendance through the biometric or HRMS system daily. Persistent late-coming or unauthorized absence may result in disciplinary action as outlined in Section 8.

5. Compensation and Payroll

- Salaries are credited to the employee's registered bank account by the last working day of each month.

- Statutory deductions (income tax, provident fund, professional tax, etc.) are made in accordance with applicable law.
- Annual compensation reviews are typically conducted in Q1 of each calendar year, linked to individual and organizational performance.

6. Performance Management

The Company follows an annual performance management cycle comprising goal-setting, a mid-year check-in, and a year-end review. Performance ratings inform compensation decisions, promotions, and development planning. Employees are encouraged to have ongoing performance conversations with their Reporting Manager beyond the formal cycle.

7. Code of Conduct

- Employees are expected to act with integrity, honesty, and professionalism in all dealings with colleagues, clients, and stakeholders.
- Conflicts of interest, including outside employment or financial interest in competing businesses, must be disclosed to HR.
- Confidential Company and client information must not be disclosed to unauthorized parties, during or after employment.
- Use of Company assets, including IT systems and email, must be for legitimate business purposes and in accordance with the IT Acceptable Use guidelines.
- The Company maintains zero tolerance for harassment, discrimination, or bullying of any kind, as detailed in the Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) Policy.

8. Disciplinary Procedure

Where conduct or performance concerns arise, the Company follows a progressive disciplinary process:

- Verbal counseling and documentation of the concern
- Written warning, with a defined improvement period
- Final written warning
- Termination of employment, in cases of serious or repeated misconduct, or gross misconduct warranting immediate action

Employees have the right to respond to any allegation and, where applicable, to be accompanied by a colleague during formal disciplinary meetings.

9. Grievance Redressal

Employees with a work-related grievance are encouraged to first raise the matter with their Reporting Manager. If unresolved, the matter may be escalated to the HR Business Partner, and subsequently to the Grievance Redressal Committee, which will investigate and respond within 15 working days of formal submission.

10. Separation and Notice Period

Grade / Band	Notice Period
Associate / Senior Associate	30 days
Manager / Senior Manager	60 days
Director and above	90 days

Resignation must be submitted in writing through the HRMS. The Company reserves the right to relieve an employee earlier than the notice period, with pay in lieu of the remaining notice, or to require an employee to serve the full notice period. Full and final settlement is processed within 45 days of the last working day, subject to completion of exit formalities and clearance.

11. Policy Governance

These policies are reviewed periodically by the Human Resources Department and may be amended to reflect changes in law, business needs, or organizational practice. In case of any conflict between this document and statutory requirements, applicable law will prevail. Employees are advised to refer to the Employee Handbook for additional guidance and to direct queries to hr@nexoraglobal.com.