Travel Policy

Guidelines for domestic and international business travel

Effective Date: January 1, 2026

Document Owner: Human Resources Department

Classification: Internal Use — Sample / Template Document

1. Purpose

This Travel Policy establishes guidelines for domestic and international business travel undertaken by employees of Nexora Global Solutions Pvt. Ltd., including booking procedures, entitlements by grade, and expense reimbursement, to ensure traveler safety, cost efficiency, and consistent treatment across the organization.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all employees undertaking travel for official Company business, including client visits, conferences, training programs, and internal meetings at other Company locations.

3. Travel Authorization

- All business travel must be pre-approved by the Reporting Manager via the Travel Request Form in the Travel Management System prior to booking.
- International travel additionally requires approval from the Department Head and, where visa sponsorship is required, coordination with HR at least 3 weeks in advance.
- Travel bookings must be made through the Company's designated travel desk / preferred travel partner wherever available.

4. Entitlement by Grade

Grade / Band	Domestic Air Travel	International Air Travel	Hotel Category
Associate / Senior Associate	Economy	Economy	3-star or Company-pr
Manager / Senior Manager	Economy (Premium on >5 hrs)	Economy / Premium Economy	4-star
Director / Senior Director	Business (on >3 hrs)	Business	4-star to 5-star
Vice President and above	Business	Business / First (case-by-case)	5-star

4.1 Ground Transportation

Employees may use Company-empaneled cab services, ride-hailing apps, or personal vehicles (with mileage reimbursement at the notified per-kilometer rate) for local travel. Airport transfers are reimbursable with original receipts or app-based invoices.

5. Per Diem and Daily Allowance

Travel Type	Metro Cities	Non-Metro Cities	International
Domestic - Meals & Incidentals	INR 1,500/day	INR 1,200/day	N/A
International - Meals & Incidentals	N/A	N/A	USD 60-90/day (dependent)

Per diem rates are intended to cover meals and incidental expenses when not otherwise provided (e.g., by a hotel or conference). Country-specific international per diem rates are published separately by Finance and updated annually.

6. Accommodation

- Hotel bookings should be made within the grade-based category listed above, through the Company's preferred booking channel.
- Where a conference or client site mandates a specific hotel, the actual cost may be reimbursed with prior approval even if it exceeds the standard category.
- Extended stays for personal reasons (e.g., combining business travel with personal leave) are permitted, but any incremental cost of accommodation, travel change fees, or per diem for personal days will not be reimbursed.

7. Expense Reimbursement

- All travel expenses must be submitted via the Expense Management System within 15 calendar days of completion of travel, accompanied by original invoices or digital receipts.
- Expenses submitted beyond 60 days from the date of travel may not be reimbursed without written justification and HR/Finance approval.
- Reimbursable expenses include airfare, ground transport, accommodation, per diem, visa fees, and reasonable communication charges incurred for business purposes.
- Non-reimbursable expenses include alcoholic beverages, personal entertainment, spa/laundry beyond 3 consecutive travel days, traffic fines, and expenses for accompanying family members or friends.

8. Advances

Employees may request a travel advance up to 80% of the estimated trip cost through the Finance portal at least 5 working days before departure for international trips, and 3 working days for domestic trips. Advances must be settled within 7 working days of return, with any unused amount refunded to the Company.

9. Travel Insurance and Safety

- All international travelers are automatically covered under the Company's group travel insurance policy, details of which are available from HR.
- Employees traveling to locations under a travel advisory or elevated risk classification must obtain additional clearance from the Security and Compliance team.
- Employees are required to share itinerary and emergency contact details with their Reporting Manager and the Travel Desk prior to departure.

10. Visa and Documentation

The Company will bear the cost of visa fees, related courier charges, and mandatory travel insurance for approved international business trips. Employees are responsible for ensuring their passport has a minimum validity of 6 months from the date of travel.

11. Non-Compliance

Bookings made outside the approved process, or expense claims that are found to be inflated, unsubstantiated, or non-compliant with this policy, may be rejected and may result in disciplinary action in accordance with the Employee Handbook.

12. Policy Administration

This policy is jointly administered by the Human Resources and Finance departments and is reviewed annually. Queries relating to travel bookings or reimbursement should be directed to travel@nexoraglobal.com.
